RE: Exposition Park Public Safety Update

The Los Angeles Police Department is continuing its investigation into yesterday's incident at the Park, and has released the following update.

Exposition Park continues to serve as a safe and accessible open space for all Angelenos, and part of our mission is to maintain an environment where the community can come together.

Our Department of Public Safety works collaboratively with law enforcement partners, and will maintain an active presence at the Park to ensure the safety of all our visitors.

Going forward, we are committed to working with our leaders to strengthen our security systems and public safety capabilities.
